

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just rub about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and your ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—(Adv.)

FINNEY CARTER RECEIVES CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION

CHURCHVILLE VOTE GIVEN YOUNG CANDIDATE.

Evidence Fails to Develop Names of Parties Who Stole Ballots.

Following a lengthy investigation conducted by the Hamilton county election commission, at which Atty.-Gen. George W. Chamlee was present and questioned all witnesses, a certificate of election was given Finney Carter for the state senate and J. O. Martin, L. D. Miller and Charley Lynn for the lower house. The investigation was held in the county court room Wednesday morning and was attended by a number of leading democrats and republicans. Following the investigation Gen. Chamlee requested the election commission to preserve all the records and evidence in the case, as he would put the entire matter before the next grand jury in an effort to learn who stole the ballots from the Churchville ballot box. The Wahatchie box will also be investigated, it being claimed that irregularities existed there.

W. B. Cleage, the unsuccessful candidate for state senator, was not present at the investigation Wednesday, he having stated that he would not now accept the election as long as there had been fraud perpetrated by some one.

The investigation was held following the opinion of Atty.-Gen. Frank M. Thompson, who stated that when ballots were missing, burned or otherwise mutilated, secondary evidence could be taken and the vote could be proved by credible witnesses as it stood before the irregularities arose. The vote in the Churchville precinct was proved conclusively to have been, Carter 79 and Cleage 11, this making Carter's elective vote 2,429 and Cleage's 236. The commission, speaking through its chairman, Theo King, stated that from the evidence adduced the commission was satisfied that Mr. Carter had been elected and would issue a certificate of his election. The election of J. O. Martin, L. D. Miller and Charley Lynn was also certified to. Martin's official vote was 2,720, Miller's 2,571 and Lynn's 2,272, making Lynn's majority over A. L. Emerson, who ran fourth, 131. There were no disputes about the vote for the lower house.

During the investigation and while J. W. Eldridge, bookkeeper at the jail, was on the stand, Gen. Chamlee asked the witness: "Did you see anybody whom you recognized about the jail while the boxes were being kept there?" The witness replied that he had not paid any particular attention, as so many had come in and out. The witness was then asked: "Did you see Randolph Howell, Fred Frawley, W. B. Cleage or any of the candidates or their friends about the jail while the boxes were there?" "They might have been there, but I didn't see them; as I said, there were so many coming in and out and I was so busy," the witness answered.

Delivered Box at Jail.
The investigation began by the calling to the stand of John E. Taylor, who was the first witness to the election and who delivered the box to the county jail. He testified as he did in his affidavit which he gave the commission, stating when the vote was counted the box was locked and he took it to the jail and turned it over to J. W. Eldridge. He said the vote for state senator stood, Carter 79 and Cleage 11. He was sure of this. "He was carefully examined regarding every detail by the attorney-general. Other judges of the election were put on the stand and they all testified that the votes, after being counted, were placed in the box and given to Mr. Taylor and he brought the box to town. They also testified that the vote for state senator in Churchville was, Carter 79 and Cleage 11. The witnesses, when questioned further, stated that Churchville was a republican precinct and the vote cast for state senator was approximately the same republican majority always received in this precinct."

Eldridge Testifies.
J. W. Eldridge was then placed on the stand and he stated that Mr. Taylor had brought the Churchville box to the jail and he had told him to put it in the other room at the jail where fifteen or twenty other boxes were. Mr. Eldridge stated that he was then called on the inside of the jail and paid no more attention to the box and knew nothing was wrong with it until the election commission opened it.

Mr. Eldridge injected a great deal of fun into the hearing when asked about the politics of some one to which he replied "I declare general it's hard to tell this day and time what a man's politics are, they change so much, but I can say that I am a democrat and never voted for but one republican in my life and that was John McGill, and I wouldn't have done that except he is my uncle."

Wallace Sims, janitor at the jail was the last witness to take the stand and he testified that he brought Mr. Taylor to town in his automobile and the box was locked and sealed. He stated the vote was Carter 79 and Cleage 11. He was positive of this. At this juncture the commission said they were satisfied and announced they would issue Mr. Carter a certificate of election. Following the hearing Gen. Chamlee stated the whole affair would be given an airing before the grand jury and the guilty parties would be indicted and prosecuted. He said that he had important information which would lead to indictments that would be of general interest.

Mr. Cleage, after advising with his friends following the discovery of fraud in Churchville, stated that now as there was a cloud hanging over the election he didn't want it. He stated that the fraud was committed so as to injure him and bring about his defeat. "I don't believe any one believes that I or my friends had anything to do with the fraud at Churchville, nor do they believe that I represent such a citizenship," stated Mr. Cleage. The matter now with the exception of the grand jury investigation is a closed incident.

Prominent among those present at the hearing were S. Bartow Strang, J. H. Anderson, P. H. Thach, John Finkler, Andy Ware, Charley Lynn, Finney Carter, J. H. Hogan, P. McMahon, J. Walter Peake, W. A. Whitlitz and Charley Watson.

The Girl and the Bishop

HE was one of the best known American bishops, preaching straight-out, man-fashion sermons to the boys in France. Everywhere they liked what he said and the way he said it.

On a certain night last summer, he was scheduled to speak in the big hut in one of the largest centers. His subject was announced. The hour was set for eight o'clock. Everything was ready.

Then came the telegram. It came in the middle of the afternoon. It threw the head Secretary into a frenzy. It was from Paris.

It said that the most popular American actress in France would arrive to give her performance that evening!

The girl and the bishop at once!

A hurried consultation was held and then it was explained to the bishop how matters stood.

"What time does she arrive?" asked the bishop.

"A little after eight o'clock," said some one.

"Then it's perfectly simple," the bishop went on. "Move my meeting ahead to seven o'clock. It will last only forty-five minutes. Then clear the hut, re-arrange the benches and bring on your musical comedy star!"

"Do you mean it?" they gasped.

"Why, of course!"

And that is exactly what they did. At 7.45 o'clock the bishop closed his meeting and at 8:15 o'clock the actress began her show, from the same stage.

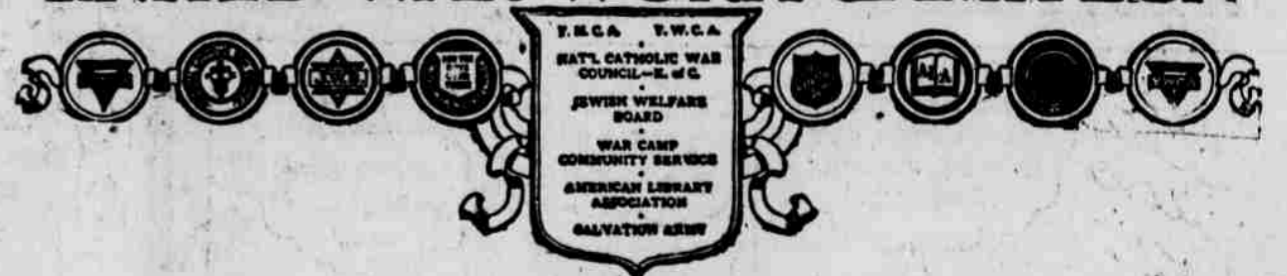

There was no pretense about it—no attempt to get an audience for a religious meeting by announcing a vaudeville show. Each gathering was announced for exactly what it was. And at both gatherings the hut was packed!

The American soldier needs diversion and entertainment as well as he needs religion. He gets both at his hut—each one in its place, each one clearly defined, honestly labelled, sincerely offered.

This United War Work Campaign is for funds to carry clean, wholesome amusement to the soldiers as much as to provide them with the athletic, educational, religious and social background of home. It is to round out the lives of the men whose existence in a foreign country would become narrow and monotonous.

Give—to let the soldiers have a few of the good things you have every day.
